

THE COMMERCIAL OBSERVER

February 26, 2013

LOBBY

Jack Resnick & Sons has promoted Thomas Ruggiero to associate general counsel, it was announced last week.

Mr. Ruggiero joined the firm in 2007 and previously served as an assistant counsel involved in lease negotiations, acquisitions and dispositions, bankruptcy claims and mortgage financings. His new position will expand his responsibilities to include all legal matters and issues impacting the company.

“During the past six years, Thomas’s legal expertise has assisted our corporate counsel with everything from commercial office leasing to complex financial transactions,” said the president of the company, Jonathan Resnick. “We are pleased to recognize his achievements with this promotion.”

Mr. Ruggiero holds degrees from Florida International University and Pace Law School.